

I urge the FCC not to define a "Broadcast Flag" or to mandate its use in digital systems. This ruling would unreasonably restrict the ordinary and proper use of computer and other systems that handle video data. It is the wrong approach to protecting the interests of copyright holders.